Primary Examiner, Art Unit 1647

Continuation of 3 (a and c) and 11: Applicant's proposed claim amendments do not place the case in condition for allowance or in better condition for appeal.

Applicant's arguments are noted. However, Applicant's arguments are drawn to the proposed claim amendment reciting "wherein the pyrophosphate-type compound includes...wherein the pyrophosphate type compound is administered to the human..." This is a newly presented limitation.

The amendment requires further search and consideration and may necessitate a new prior art rejection. Accordingly, the amendment cannot presently be entered.
